

~~~~~

International Symposium: “Investigative Journalism in the Regions of Asia: Perspectives and Prospects”

Date: June 4th (Sun), 2017

Venue: International Conference Center, Ibuka Masaru Memorial Hall, Waseda University, Tokyo, JAPAN

Sponsors:

Institute for Journalism, Waseda University

<http://www.hanadataz.jp/>

Waseda Chronicle

<http://www.wasedachronicle.org/>

Committee to Protect Journalists (CPJ)

<https://www.cpj.org/>

Co-Sponsor:

Comprehensive Research Organization, Waseda University

Corporation:

Global Investigative Journalism Network (GIJN)

<http://gijn.org/>

Language: Japanese and English (simultaneous interpretation available)

Admission: Free

Program:

12:45 Doors open & Registration

13:15-13:30 Opening Address: Tatsuro HANADA (Director, Institute for Journalism)

13:30-15:00

Session 1: Panel Discussion-Japan's experience with investigative journalism

Taka-aki YORIMITSU (Former chief of investigative section, Asahi Shimbun)

Yasunobu KUMADA (Deputy Head of Current Affairs Division, NHK)

Jiro ISHIMARU (Asia Press Network: APN)

Martin FACKLER (Former Chief, Tokyo Bureau, New York Times)

Moderator: Steven BUTLER (Asia Program Coordinator, CPJ)

15:00-15:10 Break

15:10-16:45

Video reporting on investigative journalism in USA

Message from GIJN : Alessia Cerantola

Session 2: Panel Discussion-New models to sustain investigative journalism in Asia

Yongjin KIM, Editor in Chief of Newstapa in Korea

Gemma Bagayau-Mendoza, Rappler in the Philippines

Sherry LEE, Editorial Managing Director of the Reporter in Taiwan

Makoto WATANABE, Editor in Chief of Waseda Chronicle in Japan

Moderator: Kathleen CARROLL (Vice Chair, CPJ)

16:45-17:00 Closing Address: Joel SIMON (Executive Director, CPJ)